CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD INFORMATION CONSENT FORM

(Sworn Position Purpose Code "Z")
(Non-Sworn Position Purpose Code "J")

The passage of revisions to the federal Omnibus Consolidation Appropriations Act of 1997 and its amendment to the Gun Control Act of 1968 makes it unlawful for any person convicted of a "misdemeanor crime of domestic violence" to ship, transport, possess, or receive firearms or ammunition, including law enforcement personnel. There are no provisions in this law for exemptions.

I hereby give my consent for a criminal history record check to be conducted. I understand this consent is voluntary, however, I acknowledge that refusal to give this consent may have an adverse effect on my continued employment as a law enforcement officer.

 From any liability or damage that may result from the use of information obtained from N-DEx.

Redress:

If employment is denied solely due to information obtained from N-DEx, and the applicant challenges the accuracy or completeness of those records, the denying agency shall provide the applicant with the contact information of the agency owning the information underlying the decision to deny. After receiving a written request from the applicant challenging the accuracy or completeness of the record used to deny employment, the record-owning agency shall then review the relevant information and advise the applicant in writing whether it has confirmed the accuracy or completeness of its records or whether the records will be corrected. If the applicant does not receive a response from the record-owning agency within 30 days from the date of the applicant's written request, the applicant may contact the FBI CJIS Division N-DEx Unit, 1000 Custer Hollow Rd, Clarksburg, WV 26306. The FBI shall forward the challenge to the record-owning agency for verification or correction. The record-owning agency shall then review the relevant information and advise the applicant in writing whether it has verified its records or whether the records will be corrected. Agencies should inform applicants of their responsibility to provide any corrected information to the denying agency that may assist the record owning agency in its research on behalf of the applicant.
